Confessed fully to JOINT activities but gave no information about his role for the British as the Germans did not interrogate him on this subject.

Later transferred to Vienna prison from which he was freed by the entry of the Russians in April 1945. In the same month he was arrested by the Russians at the home of X-CIS agent GEFROHLER. Interrogated on his activities for the JOINT and the CIS but his D/A role for the British was never mentioned. Kept on by the NKVD unit as an interpreter. Released after a new interrogation in May-June 1945. Some time after his liberation he was given a job as office-manager at the Vienna office of JOINT, which he left in August 1945. LOWENHERZ, Dr. Leopold

Leader of Jewish Community in Vienna under the German occupation. Received ~~x~~ letters from JOINT in Istanbul via courier (from Istanbul to Budapest by Erich WENDER and from Budapest to Vienna by WIENINGER). (qv).

LVX-207

SCHUSTER, Heinz

Member of the Jewish community in Prague during German occupation at which time he was in direct contact with the inmates of the concentration camp of Theresienstadt. Received and answered letters from JOINT, Istanbul which were delivered ~~by~~ to him by SCHWARTZ from Budapest.

SCHWARTZ, Rudolph alias Kaesten Lilo alias PIHULAK alias SCHULTZ (or SHOIZ)

Born at Vienna on 6 Feb 1912. A smuggler and "no-good" who worked for the GIS during the occupation in Budapest. During this period he and WIENINGER (qv) smuggled gold to Budapest and jewels to Vienna. He was recruited to carry letters from JOINT (given to him by WENDER in Budapest) to Jewish leaders in Czechoslovakia and Poland, and to carry back reports on the situation of Jews in those occupied countries. In the summer of 1943 was presented to WENIA (Jewish Agency/JOINT representative in Istanbul) by WENDER. WENIA also presented him to JOINT's British contacts in Istanbul who assured him that the British Government, as well as the JOINT, would assist him if his duties for them got him into trouble. Arrested in May 1944 by the Gestapo. Transferred to Vienna prison ~~x~~ in November 1944, along with WENDER, WIENINGER and GIS-agent GEFORNER. Freed around New Year 1945.

(REF: LVX-207)

In September 1946, according to interrogation of WIENINGER, he was living in Velden/Woerthersee and working for the British IS (not probable).

WIENINGER interrogator commented that, according to a controlled report, his address at this date was Styria, in Eddschrött, near Graz.

His father's address in May-June 1946 was Vienna II, Ausstellungstr. 9.

WIENINGER, real name Joseph DURST

Austrian citizen, born at Kazanovka, Poland on 8 December 1898; upholsterer.

Before the war was an upholsterer in Vienna, sentenced three times for embezzlement. Mid 1939 to May 1944: worked for the German IS, first in Vienna, later in Budapest. Recruited in March 1943 by Erich WENDER to carry money to Czechoslovakia for JOINT. Discussed it with his GIS chief, GEFORNER, who agreed to the plan on condition that the percentage received from the JOINT be shared with GEFORNER. WIENINGER carried JOINT letters to Pressburg and Vienna.

Reports on the exact ~~number~~ nature of his work for the JOINT are conflicting:

a) WENDER interrogation gives impression that WIENINGER's courier route was between Budapest and ultimate destination of letters; WENDER's ^{only} ~~first~~ mention of WIENINGER's traveling to Istanbul and being in contact with the JOINT people is November 1943.

b) Interrogation of Lt. Col. Baron von MANTEUFEL, then WIENINGER's GIS superior, states that WIENINGER had told Col. von M. that the JOINT, in addition to its aid to Jews in occupied countries, served as "an intelligence pooling service sponsored by the Anglo-American ~~Intelligence~~ Services in the Middle East" and that in this capacity the JOINT had put WIENINGER in contact with Allied Services. Von M. states that the GIS prepared ~~in~~ answers to the intelligence questionnaires which WIENINGER claimed came from the Allies, and WIENINGER took the answers to Istanbul. This B/A operation was conducted until the Gestapo ruined it by arresting WIENINGER. The von M. interrogation also states that W. worked as informer for the Gestapo after his arrest in May 1944.

c) WIENINGER's interrogation report corroborates von M's statements that he made trips to Istanbul for the JOINT (about 5 trips in all) but claims that WIENINGER ~~said~~ fabricated for the GIS the story of his intelligence connections with the JOINT. He stated that he made up the questionnaires allegedly coming from the JOINT. He also denied having acted as an informer for the Gestapo while imprisoned by them.

Arrested in Budapest ~~in 1944~~ in May 1944 by the SD. Transferred to Vienna in November 1944. Freed 6 April 1945. Engaged in black market and foreign currency deals in addition to his role as informant for the Vienna State Police regarding/Abwehr until his arrest on 4 September 1946 by the CIC which ^{also} ~~considered him~~ a security threat.

Was present at the arrest of by the Gestapo SCHNARTZ and WIENINGER (qqv)/but was not ~~arrested~~ detained himself - the others believed he had betrayed them.
